

Job Description – Technical Services Head

Qualification: A graduate engineer from reputed institute, either civil, environmental, mechanical or chemical with relevant experience of minimum 15 years.

Experience: Experience required in large process or chemical process or environment process industries in technical functions. Should possess hands on experience in technical aspects including calculations for:

- piping and flow systems including selection of pumps and pipes,
- solid liquid separations ie, decantation, filtration, centrifuging, and settling,
- process control and automation system design basis,
- biological treatment processes for waste water,
- developing & writing technical specifications for procurement,
- leading a team of technical professionals effectively,
- troubleshooting of problems in existing operating units

----- X -----